Your Personality Profile Prism -

We shall analyze the different rays reflected from your ascendant sign, Sun sign and Moon sign. This will help you to understand and experience your own personality profile and nature better. There will be contradictions, but contradiction is the name of life. Our life is not linear, or one-dimensional. There are many layers and many dimensions, which constitute our life.

Ascendant Predictions - Your Ascendant is Pisces

Your ascendant is Pisces; it is the negative sign of Jupiter. As sign number 12, it shows complete display of all possibilities but not necessarily their proper integration. – It is the last sign of the Zodiac and has a lot of potential. Pisces persons are intelligent than most and do wonderfully at any field, be it vocation or profession. They are people who think beyond the restrictions of reality. They normally keep provisions for all the 'ifs and buts'. This creates problem in setting a concrete pattern life path. They are witty and charming especially with the members of the opposite sex. They attract strong signs of the Zodiac for apparent vulnerability when in real life they may not actually be so. They like life to take care of itself and often depend on mate or partner to take care of all the responsibilities that are mostly considered as normal day-to-day chores. Pisces individuals are emotional, expansive, intuitive and imaginative. They are enthusiastic but not always wisely so. They like to influence others but are easily influenced themselves and may be vulnerable or impressionable. They are friendly and communicative and thus can relate to a variety of people. They can easily become dependant or make others dependent upon them. They are often sentimental and easily moved by feelings, including those that are not genuine. They are friendly and compassionate but can be moved by sympathy and pity. They often lack in boundaries and may not have enough clarity and practicality. They can be amorphous, hard to pin down, and often appear in whatever way is necessary to please or placate others, reflecting the influence of the moment.

Sun Sign Predictions - Your Sun Sign is Cancer

Sun signifies our soul, what we are and what is our inherent nature, not necessarily what we are going to project through our Karma to the external world during this incarnation. The Sun symbolizes the cosmic intelligence, pure consciousness or the enlighten mind.

The Sun is our sense of self and indicates the level of our self-manifestation. On the lower level, the Sun represents the ego. It shows our impulse towards power, prestige, fame, honor, respect, authority and control - all these things that give value and prominence to our separate self and personal power. It shows where we shine, how we shine and in what we shine, and how we illumine ourselves and our own lives.

NATURE:

You are imaginative and moody. An individuality of your nature is that you may have a very uncommon hobby or whim and it is this uniqueness in you that attracts people to you.

You are sensitive and want people to praise you but do not like to say so openly. Although you appear to be indifferent to praise from others, it has great importance for you. You need others to encourage and inspire you. If some one misunderstands you, you give up and get demoralized.

You have a sharp memory and hence retain knowledge, which is both useful and also irrelevant. You are attracted to all that is old--customs, traditions, history and antiques. You may even prefer the company of people older to you.

You are very romantic by nature and affectionate and loving. Although you are deeply attached to your spouse and children, you are also fond of traveling and change. This may not let you to be in one place for long. While you are in a new place--you may miss your home and vice-versa. This may cause tension in your domestic life.

You are not afraid to work hard, but you prefer to do everything your own way. You do not like to take orders but if someone entrusts you with a job, you work tirelessly and sincerely to complete it according to her wishes.

Outwardly, you seem to be careful with your money and like to keep aside something for a rainy day, but being imaginative and a romantic at heart, you sometimes are a miser and at others, a spendthrift.

You have the feminine traits of being soft and gentle. You want to win over everyone with love and sympathy and because of it you get close to people quite easily and also gain popularity. But you have to guard against the danger of getting involved with undesirable characters that may take advantage of your sympathetic nature and land you in trouble. You are naturally inclined to matters-spiritual and extra-sensory, and with a little effort, given the right conditions; you may attain some spiritual powers. You may even be a good medium for the physical world. But you need to exercise great caution before engaging in activities like planchette as undesirable influences from the other world may harm you both mentally and cause moral degeneration.

LUCK:

Although you are hardworking and committed, you are not very lucky in the material sense. There will be lot of obstacles in the path of progress. You'll face a lot of ups and downs, financially. Many unforeseen circumstances will happen to upset all your plans. Your surroundings/ circumstances will greatly influence your fate. Your future will depend upon how much restrain you can exercise over your impulsive nature. One main hindrance to your progress is your tendency to cry over spilt milk. You'll waste time regretting the past, instead of planning for the future. This will cause you to lose some big opportunities to progress in life. If you can restrain this habit, you will progress according to your abilities and be successful.

IMPORTANT CHANGES IN LIFE:

Significant changes can happen in your life at the following ages: 12 1/2 25 years and 37-1/2 years.

YOUR SPECIAL POTENTIAL:

You have a strong imagination and hence can be a successful poet, artist, and musician. You will also be successful in work concerned with medicine, pharmacy, jail, hospital, orphanages and other social institutions. Work that involves a lot of traveling, detective work, war departments, water and land related, new inventions, etc. will also be suitable for you. Many great inventors, artists, poets, warriors have been born in this month.

MARRIAGE:

You shouldn't marry too early as your liking may change as you grow older. It is advisable to marry a mature person rather than very young, as you will be attracted more to the former. Similarly, if you are a woman, it is advisable to marry an older person. Signs most compatible for you are Pieces, Scorpio and Taurus for love and marriage.

HEALTH:

You do not have a strong constitution. You may suffer from indigestion, hence exercise caution over food. The main reason for your ailment will be a anxiety. It may obstruct the circulation of blood leading to constipation, indigestion, localized clot, gout and such chronic diseases. You may suffer from hysteria and hypochondria. Not being well will make you restless and no matter how trivial the ailment, you'll think of the worst. Sometimes this may create an illness that's not there. The only way to stay well is to avoid stress and anxiety--worldly and domestic and try to be cheerful and happy.

COLOR:

White, shining silvery colors, and the metal nickel are very auspicious for you.

Moon Sign Predictions - Your Moon Sign is Pisces

Moon signifies our mind. The Moon shows the astral body, the field of impression of past karma operative behind the present incarnation. Thus, the Moon can show positive resources from the past, which give us greater consciousness in life, or it can show negative influences from the past that bind us to regressive patterns of behavior. The Moon shows our capacity to receive and to be affected, but it also indicates our capacity to be hurt. It indicates our general vulnerability.

Persons with Pisces Moon Signs are restless - which can be either physical or mental. Usually Pisceans like physical activity such as sports and like to perform all tasks briskly. Pisceans like to travel; in fact they get quite bored in one place after some time as a result they often change their residences. There is an inbuilt spirituality in every Piscean, and that percolates in their entire endeavor.

Pisceans are emotional and sentimental. They can be quite religious however they are more or less ruled by their emotion and heart rather than head. They form their opinions more often based on their intuition and feelings than on their intellect. They have natural inclination towards art, literature and music. They are willing to sacrifice everything at the altar of their feelings.

Love and romance will be most important in their life and selection of life partner assures great significance in their life. Pisceans are influenced very easily in the wrong company. Pisceans can turn into an alcoholic and drug addicts. In the right and noble company they can sacrifice their life helping others.

Pisceans have a natural spontaneity in whatever they do and they display uncontrolled enthusiasm in all their actions. However, they can swing between heights of optimism to the lowest depth of depression if they encounter a little obstacle in their endeavor. This impractical nature is the major weakness in their character. If other planetary combinations are not favorable in their birth chart they may suffer major setbacks in their life because of their dreams and impractical nature. An unfavorable Moon in the birth chart will devoid Pisceans of all domestic happiness and they have to spend the last part of their life in complete loneliness and in a place far away from their birth place.

Unwillingly Pisceans cultivate many secret enemies. However, if the Moon is otherwise favorable in the birth chart, Pisceans achieve high degree of success in social and charitable work and achieve greatest satisfaction and peace in their life.

The characteristics of a Pisces Moon Sign or Janma Rasi can be summarized as: imaginative, kind, intuitive; psychic; literary; meets with many misfortunes and obstacles, loves beauty and luxury; has difficulty saving money or affording things; has trouble making emotional commitment in romance.

FINAL CONCLUSION -

Among the three tripods analyzed above the strongest influence to your personality and nature will be considered by your Ascendant sign.

Analysis of Sign Type and element in your chart-

Sign Types and their dominating elements in the chart:

Each Zodiac Sign relates to one of the three major qualities "Cardinal", "Fixed" and "Mutable". These qualities relate to the manner whereby the individual directs her or her energy in life and is often reflected in the nature of the character. These qualities are much like positive (cardinal), neutral (fixed) and negative (mutable) electric charges. No quality is necessarily better or worse than others. However each has its energy pattern and its characteristic imbalances that an individual dominated by it must master to achieve success in different aspects of ones life

Type of Sign/Elements of Sign	Fire	Earth	Air	Water
Cardinal				Sun
Fixed	Mer, Ven, Sat
Mutable		Rah, Mar	Jup	Asd, Mon, Ket

Astrologers comments –

In this table above, we are looking at your chart as a whole, and we are trying to establish what are the dominating sign types and sign elements influencing your life prism as a whole.

You will observe the dominant sign type or sign characteristics in your chart are the mutable sign type. The elements are predominantly fiery and watery.

If planets are in the following sign types then the following characteristics are indicated:

Cardinal Types

Cardinal or Active types show the positive, active, dynamic, initial or guiding phase of their respective element. It is the principle of movement, gives impulse, direction, and expression; but may cause disturbance, agitation and too forceful or too frequent action.

Cardinal types or those who have planets predominately in Cardinal signs are people of action. They are positive, expressive, outgoing and have a high sense of achievement and accomplishment. They are wilful, aggressive, impulsive, and dynamic and often become successful as leaders. Most high achievers and executive types are of this quality. However, they can burn themselves out as a result of excess activity, and can be insensitive to the needs of others.

Cardinal types need to cultivate more sensitivity, flexibility, patience and introversion and develop more consistency and stability.

Fixed Types

Fixed types show static, stable, neutral, formal or enduring phase of their respective element. It is the condition of form or substance; it gives continuity and consistency; but it may cause inertia, resistance and stagnation.

Fixed types or those who have planets predominately in Fixed signs are firm, stable and determined in who they are and what they do. They like to continue, pursue and uphold things. They are quite settled in themselves and often unwilling to modify their opinions or question themselves. They are consistent, have strong faith and do not waver in their beliefs. However, they can be obstinate, fixated and incapable of accepting any other point of view but their own. They are often possessive and may accumulate much in life, finding it difficult to let go.

Fixed types need to develop more initiative and attempt more new things, particularly new ways of looking at things. They need to be more sensitive, adaptable and open. They also need to make certain that what they are holding on to is to the truth and not just some pattern of negativity, emotionality or selfishness.

Mutable types

Mutable or Dual types swing between Cardinal and Fixed. They are flexible, adaptable, and capable of many things. They often have many talents, interests, curiosities and skills. They are prone to be interactive and may find it difficult to act. In addition they may be inconsistent and unable to stick to things. They are often mental types who like to think, calculate, worry or reflect and they can become too introverted or overly preoccupied with themselves.

Mutable types need to have more initiative, daring and willingness to act. They need to set aside their thoughts and work through their actions. Above all, they need to direct their sensitivity in a more conscious direction so that things do not so easily disturb them. They need to use their sensitivity consciously as a tool rather than have it react against them unconsciously.

sign Qualities

Each sign further relates to one of the four elements of Earth, Water, Fire or Air. Known as Bhuta or Tatwa in Vedic Astrology, a planet will take on the sign characteristics when occupying that specific sign.

If planets are in the following sign elements then the following characteristics are indicated:

Fire Elements

Fire signs show strong will, ambition, determination, discrimination, perception and critical mind. People with predominance of fiery planets often seek power and a display of force and drama. Their focus is more on the self and character than upon the interchange with others. Well-placed planets in the Fire signs give illumination freedom and enlightenment.

Earth Element

Strong planets in Earth signs show a sense of form, order, utility and practicality and they seek material manifestation or expression. They usually show a strong connection to or much work to do with the Earth, the body or physical matter.

Well-placed planets in Earth signs give practical efficiency, physical purity and the capacity for work. Poorly placed planets in Earth signs constrict and block us and keep us tied to the harsher side of life.

Air Element

Air signs show versatility of movement and change, generally more on a mental level. People with predominance of planets in Air signs are often intellectual or at least mental types. They seek communication and realization of ideas and ideals; their love is usually of knowledge. They are often speculative and not concerned with practical results and live in their ideas, calculations, plans and projections.

Well-placed planets in Air signs give comprehensiveness, balance and sensitivity. Wrongly placed planets in the Air signs have their energy dispersed. They show disturbance, uncertainty and lack of consolidation and may cause mental or nervous problems.

Water Element

Water signs bring our planetary energies into the realm of feeling and emotions and often give love, affection and attachment. They can be instinctual or intuitive. They can project strong vital natures, which promote the interchange of emotional energy between people. Well-placed planets in the Water signs give positive feelings, love and creativity. Negatively placed planets breed deep-seated emotional turmoil or stagnation.

Analysis of Planet Strengths in the Chart:

The strengths of the planets and their potential to influence favorable or unfavorable events in life depend on the location of the planet, their rulership of good or bad houses, which is determined by the individual Ascendant and their nature. It is further influenced by their special status whether they are exalted, debilitated, retrograde or combust. Whether they are functionally benefic or malefic for the chart, which is determined by the Ascendant. We present the status of each planet in the table below.

The Houses

After planets and signs, the most important parameter is the house system in the chart. The signs are a fixed twelve fold division of the zodiac and are the same for all charts. The houses are a changing twelve folds division of the zodiac, as the point at which they start varies according to each chart. Depending on the time of birth during the day, any point in the signs may mark the beginning of the Houses.

The houses are determined by the cardinal points of the Earths orientation to the heavens at the time of birth. The point of the zodiac rising on the eastern horizon at birth becomes the cusp of the determining point for the First house. The rest of the houses are usually determined mathematically from this point.

This starting point is called the Ascendant or the cusp of the first house. As we have already learned, The Ascendant is the most important factor in prediction in Vedic astrology, with the Moon sign being the second and the Sun sign being a distant third.

The term "house" arose as each of these areas delineates a domain of our life on Earth, the fields of activity. Thus each house signifies some aspects of our life.

Analysis of House Strengths:

A house is influenced by the planet that is located in the house, and the planet which is the Lord of that house and also the planets which aspect the house. Further each house has a planet, which is its natural signifier. All these factors finally contribute to the strength of each house in the chart. Please examine the attached "House Table" for your chart.

The natal promises of individual planets in your natal chart -

Sun in the V house

If the Sun is in the 5th house, the person will be sharp and intelligent. She may also be irritable or hot-tempered. She will have few children, and her relationship with them may be disturbed. A female with this placement may have a difficult childbirth. The person's investments are unprofitable, and she may be poor. She may have difficulties in love affairs and be overly indulgent in seeking pleasures. The person will wish to rule or dominate others. Because of her past-life credit, she may be a successful politician or hold a position of authority in government. She may also benefit from her father, due to Poorvapunya. This placement does not favor morals or a religious mind, however, if the Sun is well aspected or ruling good houses, the person will be virtuous and inclined towards religious or spiritual practices. In such a case, because the Sun rules the soul, this is an excellent placement in the life of a spiritual seeker. Hindu scriptures declare that the person will be found wandering in mountains and forest regions, and that she may be well versed in the knowledge of mantras.

Moon in the I house

WAXING MOON-If the waxing Moon is in the 1st house, the person will be very good-looking and have large, beautiful eyes. She will be highly passionate and romantic. She will also be intelligent and fond of mental pursuits. She will be very sociable. There will be success in professions that deal with the public. The person will be emotional, moody, and sensitive. She will be attracted to places near water. The person will be very self-centered. Since both the Moon and the ascendant are the most personal influences in the horoscope. The personality will be magnetic and highly attractive to others. The person will be fortunate, respected and happy. There will be good health, a strong constitution, and a long life. The person will be close to her mother and the relationship may be especially significant. There will be many comforts and luxuries. Married life is happy, since the Moon in the 1st aspects the 7th house. If the Moon is afflicted, the person may be mentally unsteady.

WANING MOON-If the waning Moon is in the 1st house, the effects are similar to what has been given above but not as fortunate. The person will be good-looking, but she or she may be very changeable or mentally unstable. The waning moon does not favor intelligence as greatly as the bright Moon but the person may still be a perpetual thinker. The constitution may be weak, and there may be health problems. It is also very likely that the person will be selfish, self-centered and self-indulgent. She may also be unhappy, poor and not much respected though She will not go unnoticed.

The Moon is the most important and personal influence of all the heavenly bodies. It is similar to the ascendant in this sense. If the moon is going towards full, it is considered a benefic. The brighter or more full it is the more auspicious the influence. A waxing or waning moon is easily distinguished by noting the Moon's relationship to the Sun. If the Moon is going towards its opposition with the Sun, then it is waxing or getting brighter. If it has passed its opposition with the Sun and is moving closer to the conjunction, then it is waning, or decreasing in light. It is very important to consider the power and disposition of the Moon in this manner, for there is no comparison between a waxing Moon which has passed the Sun by one sign and a bright moon 5 or 6 signs away from the Sun. Likewise, a waning Moon which has passed its full Moon point by 1 sign is still very bright and will give good results. In Hindu astrology a full Moon birth is extremely auspicious.

Mars in the VII house

If Mars is in the 7th house, married life is rather spoiled, regardless of what sign the planet occupies. The person may marry at an early age due to physical attraction. There may be tension, arguments, and fighting within the partnership. The possibility of more than one marriage is very high. The person will have an extremely powerful sex drive, and unless Mars is well aspected may engage in extramarital affairs. Ancient Hindu scriptures declare that the person will be "immoral and indulge in sexual perversions such as kissing the private parts of another." If Mars is badly aspected, homosexuality may result. The sages have also stated that if Mars is with Ketu in the 7th, the person will not mind having intercourse with a woman in menses. The person's spouse may be aggressive, argumentative, very physical, and corrupt or sinful. Mars, more than any other planet, when afflicted in this house, can cause violence or early death to the marriage partner. There is a strong chance that the person will move from her native place and enjoy success in a foreign country. Health is harmed by Mars' aspect on the 1st house. The person may drink alcohol due to the aspect on the 2nd house. Because Mars gains strength in an angular house, the significations of Mars are strong. Hence the person may own property or buildings and have many prosperous younger brothers and sisters. She may also be rash or aggressive. There will be difficulties with business partnerships. Mars in the 7th house is an indication of Kujadosha, or Mars affliction, where married life and domestic harmony is spoiled unless the person marries another with a Kujadosha horoscope. The 7th house Kujadosha is nullified only if Mars is in Capricorn or Pisces.

Mercury in the VI house

If Mercury is in the 6th house, the person will have strength to defeat her enemies and competitors. She may have a good knowledge of health matters. There will be obstacles in educational pursuits. However, the person is outwardly intelligent and well respected. She will be interested in expressing and proving her point of view, and, is very talented in debating issues. Because she is so concerned with being right, she may be known as a quarrelsome person. She will be quite proud and enjoy showing off or bragging about herself. There may be a speech problem in childhood, which improves in time. The person obtains good jobs with fine pay. Daily work may involve any intellectual or communications activity. The person will write many letters, and if Mercury is well aspected, she will become an author. If Mercury is afflicted, there may be nervous disorders, speech defects, mental problems, and poor health. The person would be too easily excitable or rash under many circumstances. There would also be difficulties in the sphere of job and subordinates, etc.

Jupiter in the IV house

If Jupiter is in the 4th house, the person will be fortunate. She will be happy and content and will enjoy many luxuries and comforts. She will be well cared-for by her mother, and their relationship will be close. The person will own nice homes, large cars, and plenty of fixed assets. She will inherit maternal and ancestral wealth or property. She will have a successful career and be well respected. Education will be good, and the person gets a fine degree. She will be spiritual and interested in enlightenment. Religion, philosophy, and occult subjects will be dear to her heart. She will have a good upbringing and be generous and warm-hearted. If Jupiter is afflicted, the person may be deprived of fixed assets and will quarrel with her mother.

Venus in the VI house

If Venus is in the 6th house, the person will be healthy. However, if Venus is afflicted or in an enemy's house, there would be poor health and illnesses involving the reproductive system, venereal diseases would be possible. Venus in the 6th enables the person to obtain good jobs and good earnings. The person gets along well with co-workers. She will also benefit from subordinates and tenants. She will have no enemies and will rise above competitors. The person's daily work may involve sweets, the arts, beautiful objects, mathematics, or females. The person is proficient in detail work. There may be benefits from cousins or the uncle. There may be problems in the love life due to Venus being spoiled by the 6th house. In a man's chart, the wife is adversely affected and might be sickly and happiness would also be disturbed. Hindu scriptures declare that a man with Venus in the 6th will be very fond of women and have many contacts with them. The sages are, however, quite divided on the effect of this position regarding health.

Saturn in the VI house

If Saturn is in the 6th house, the person has tremendous ability to defeat her enemies and rise above her competitors. She may, however, have problems in her daily job. If the rest of the horoscope is average, the person will work at difficult jobs, which pay little. But if the chart is otherwise well disposed, she will effortlessly rise to a very high position in life, the person is very healthy and vital. She will have a powerful appetite and be a very big eater. There may be difficulties with co-workers, subordinates, and tenants. The person is talented in technical fields and has great patience with detail work. She may work with coal, carpentry, or mining. She will be courageous and powerful. There will be no benefits from cousins or the maternal uncle. If Saturn is afflicted, there may be illnesses such as asthma, rheumatism, or paralysis. Longevity would also be curtailed. Hindu scriptures declare the person to be stubborn.

Rahu in the VII house

If Rahu is in the 7th house there will be disturbances in married life. Domestic harmony is greatly lacking, and there will constantly arise issues with the spouse to be dealt with. The person will have compulsive and insatiable desires to be in relationship. The marriage partner may be powerful, domineering, or worldly and of a strong desire nature. Ancient Hindu scriptures assert that unless Rahu is beneficially aspected, the person will lose her first wife and then remarry.

Ketu in the I house

If Ketu is in the 1st house, it is bad for married life. There will be constant ups and downs and no domestic peacefulness. The spouse may be domineering or manipulative. The person is intuitive and of a spiritual or ascetic nature. There is a powerful discriminative ability. The person will be interested in attaining enlightenment or final liberation. There will be an interest in occult subjects. Ketu gives a weak constitution and health problems. There is a danger of poisons or eating contaminated foods. Ketu in the ascendant makes the person go unnoticed. She may be shy and, in a way, invisible to others. Morals are lacking and the person may be deceitful. The person is changeable, and there are many facets to the personality. There may be a compulsive lack of confidence.

Special report on Rahu/Ketu nodal axis in your natal chart -

NORTH NODE IN VIRGO OR THE SEVENTH HOUSE - SOUTH NODE IN PISCES OR THE FIRST HOUSE

If the North Node is in the seventh house, the person's greatest growth, evolution, and fulfillment come through intimate contact in love unions. In past lifetimes the person was too selfish or self directed and now must learn how to compromise and cooperate with the individual of her heart's desire. Love relationships and marriage are essential and must not be resisted or opposed, except under extenuating circumstances for brief intervals. The person must discover how to surrender her personal motives and viewpoints, and open up to the needs and concerns of her companion. She is born with confidence, assertiveness, and self-reliance. She has an over-developed personality and sense of independence. Because the person has had her way for so many lifetimes, she now, unconsciously, finds the experience empty. Consequently, she immerses herself only in relationships, which entail great surrender and compromise. To counter this tendency, she should be extremely careful before marrying. She must not in any way assume that a marriage partner will change or alter their desires, behavior, or lifestyle sometime in the future. The sacrifices and concessions necessary in the beginning of the relationship, though they may actually be quite intense and unfair, are certain to continue during the duration of the union. A tremendous amount of devotion is to be learned. It is crucial to note that evolution occurs through affinity with the love partner, not with friends, teachers, or gurus.

The person should develop her social life. Happiness comes from lending a sympathetic ear and cultivating sensitivity to the cares and needs of others. Any activities involving beauty, arts, sweets, jewelry, or other Venusian expressions are to be favored. The person should work on being more idealistic, generous, and affectionate. She should nurture her intellectual, contemplative side and forego her habitual impulsive tendencies. She should try to create balance, harmony, and serenity wherever she goes. The more the person lets go of her personal ego desires, and the more she cultivates tolerance, love, and appreciation, the happier and more fulfilled she will be.

In Hindu predictive astrology, the North Node (Rahu) in the seventh house indicates intense cravings for love relationships, as well as significant ups and downs in married life. Minor issues which need to be addressed are constantly arising (to be dealt with). The spouse is worldly, materialistic, powerful, and manipulative or domineering. The South Node (Ketu) in the first house indicates a spiritual, ascetic, and psychic personality. However, confidence is weakened and the person may be shy, impish, and or rather invisible. The nodes in the signs are of much less significance.

Comments:

The natal promise of two planets may be in total contradiction to each other for the same aspects of life. Effects of different planets do not cancel or neutralize. However each planet delivers its natal at a particular point in life. They do not all act simultaneously.

The natal promises of broad parameters in your life as promised by the interaction of houses and planets in your chart -

Your longevity and health –

As per longevity calculation from your chart, we conclude that you will enjoy at least full medium longevity in your life, which signifies at least 72 to 75 years of age. In the planet table, we find, lord of your ascendant or 1st house Jupiter is an excellent planet in your chart. Lord of 6th house Sun shows a mixed score. But from the House Table we see that the scores for your 1st house and 6th house are weak. This indicates that you will enjoy average health and your health could occasionally be a cause for concern.

Your core competence and skills –

Since the majority of the planets are in Fiery and Watery signs it indicates that you have very good zeal, enthusiasm and ambition and you are receptive to new ideas. Mutable sign being predominant it indicates that you have very good adaptability and can adapt yourself to any situation. Your 6th Lord Sun positioned in the 5th house endows you with ruling powers and courage. The combination of Mercury and Venus in the 6th house could give you good financial acumen.

Saturn positioned in the 6th house gives a long tenure of service. It also gives you a capability to work hard and to handle labor efficiently. But it could cause delay in taking decisions and so miss some good opportunities in life. Your 2nd and 9th Lord Mars positioned in the 7th house endows you with good zeal, enthusiasm, ambition and courage. It gives you mental and physical capacity and countenance to maintain dignity even in worst possible circumstances. Your ascendant and 10th Lord Jupiter positioned in the 4th house gives you very good analytical skill.

Your professional and financial status –

Your education and subsequent profession can involve a combination of technical, financial and management skills. Your 10th Lord Jupiter being of very good strength indicates that you will rise high in your professional career. Your 11th Lord Saturn positioned in the 6th house indicates that you will have to work hard in whatever profession you may choose, to get your professional rewards and recognition. At times you may feel that luck is not favoring you and you are not able to achieve your full ambition and potentials. So you will have to put in extra efforts to achieve your desired results. Though it is difficult to quantify wealth you will have enough wealth to satisfy your needs and enough to spare.

Your relationships and your love and romance –

From the house table we find that your 7th house is weak. In your chart Mars is positioned in the 7th house. This is termed Manglik as per Vedic Astrology and is not conducive for marital harmony unless the spouse is also Manglik, in which case the affliction gets neutralized. Rahu positioned in the 7th house could cause ego clashes with your spouse. Your 7th Lord Mercury is positioned in the 6th house and is afflicted by Saturn. All this makes your 7th house a slightly challenging house in your chart. You should therefore exercise tact, patience and understanding when dealing with your spouse. However, this does not mean that you will never find your life partner or get married.

When the planets are expected to deliver their natal promises

Principles of Dasha System:

According to Vedic astrology, theoretical life span of an individual is taken to be 120 years. This entire life span is divided into different main periods of planets and within this main period, there are sub-periods of all the planets and then each sub-period can be divided into sub-sub-periods of planets. This follows a predetermined sequence, the starting point of which is determined by the longitude of Moon at the time of birth.

This is unique to Vedic astrology and is called Dasa Vichar or period analysis. The effects of the planets become most operative during the Main Dasa or the sub-Dasa: Transit effects and the relation between the Main planet and the sub-planet also determine whether the good effects will be more predominant or the bad ones.

Critical periods and years when important events and transformation in life till take place -

Along with the Dasha or planetary period/sub period's overview, we shall now analyze important traits in your life and focus on major trends and events in your life.

The Saturn transit-

Saturn completes a round of zodiac in 30 years. So a particular important transit of Saturn in our life will come after every 30 years.

There are two important transits of Saturn in our life. One is called the Saturn return, when Saturn comes back after every 30 years in our life to conjoin with the natal position of Saturn in our chart. This transit lasts for 2 ½ years.

The second and most important transit of Saturn is known as the 7 ½ year cycle of Saturn or Saresati. This transit consists of 3 phases of 2-½ year each. This transit commences when Saturn enters one sign previous to the sign where Moon located in our natal chart. The 7-½ year cycle ends when Saturn exit the sign, which is one sign after the natal sign of Moon in our chart.

In some charts, depending upon the location of Saturn and Moon in the natal chart, Saturn return can be part of the 7-½ year cycles also.

Both these transits mark the most important transformation in our life both at the level of physical or mundane as well as at the emotional level. These transits can be extremely stressful, challenging, and even rewarding experience or a mixture of all that depending on the natal status of Saturn and Moon in our chart. If the transit coincides with Saturn main period or sub periods, the impact will be even more dramatic. The 7-½ year cycle of Saturn is usually an intense learning experience in our life. Apart from these two types of transits, we shall also point out transits of Saturn with respect to natal Sun, because usually this transit has very direct impact in our profession and career.

HOLISTIC VIEW -

The four aims of life -

Vedic science recognizes four legitimate aims or goals of human life "Dharma", "Artha", "Kama", and "Moksha".

1. "Dharma" means "Principle or law" and refers to the fulfillment of our need for honor or recognition in life. We could call it "Vocation" as this is how our culture interprets this need. Each of us needs to be acknowledge for what we can do so that we can contribute to society without compromising who we really are. At a base level all living organization from amoeba to human beings, must procreate and carry on the species is the "Law" for all living beings.
2. "Artha" means "achievement of goals", fulfillment of our daily duties and responsibilities but relates more specially to the acquisition of wealth and earning our livelihood. Each of us must perform our daily duties and responsibilities to earn our livelihood. Like all animals must hunt for food when they wake up, as a human being, we go to work for earning our livelihood.
3. "Kama" means literally "desire" and refers to our need for emotional and sensory happiness in life. As such, we could call it "enjoyment". All that we do in life should be enjoyable and not cause pain to others or ourselves. Without "Desire" we cannot initiate any action or make any efforts in any aspect of our life. All animals have desire for sex, food and their basic needs for existence. Human beings have complex levels of desires.
4. "Moksha" means "liberation or freedom" and relates to our need for spiritual growth, including transcendence of the three lower values. We all must seek to go beyond who we are until we become one with all.

The first three goals, we share in common with all living organization, but "pursuit of Moksha" is unique to human beings in the kingdom of God.

"HOUSES FROM HOLISTIC POINT OF VIEW"

The houses, which are the domains of planetary action, can be categorized to signify our pursuit of the four aims of life. Three of the houses belong to one pursuit among the 4 pursuits of life.

The 4 goals of life and associated House Table

Pursuit of Dharma houses (D)	1st	5th	9th
Pursuit of Artha houses (A)	2nd	6th	10th
Pursuit of Kama houses (K)	3rd	7th	11th
Pursuit of Moksha houses (M)	4th	8th	12th

Among the three houses in each category, each of them is supposed to represent a particular process.

In nature, any phenomena can be viewed as going through 3 distinct stages or process. The first stage is a "Seed stage". The second stage is a "nurturing stage" when the seed transforms into a sapling by proper nurturing or trigger.

The third stage is the final result or full manifestation of the seed into fruit and flower.

From the flower and fruit, a new seed is formed and the cycle goes on. This constitutes our life cycle and the external cycle of Karma till we reach our final salvation after many incarnations.

Ordained life script score table

Pursuits	Scores
Pursuits for 'Dharma' (Vocation)	=71(Sum of 1st+5th+9th house AB scores)
Pursuits for 'Artha' (wealth)	=92(Sum of 2nd+6th+10th house AB scores)
Pursuits for 'Kama' (sensual pleasure)	=93(Sum of 3rd +7th+11th houses AB scores)
Pursuits for 'Moksha' (salvation)	=81(Sum of 4th +8th+12th houses AB scores)
Total	337

Normal pursuit of any goal will give you a score of 84. Anything less than 84 or more than 84 will indicate that you have a bias in the pursuit of that particular goal, because the sum total of these scores for any chart will always be 337.

You will observe that you have the highest score for pursuit of desire followed by pursuit of wealth.

Your low score for the pursuit of vocation indicates that you will have to put in very good efforts to derive good satisfaction from your profession.

A high score for pursuit of wealth means that most of your time, efforts and initiative in this life you will have to spend to earn your livelihood and to perform your daily duties and responsibilities. This also indicates that you will be able to enjoy all the comforts of life.

The high score for the pursuit of desires indicates that you will derive good satisfaction from this pursuit.

The low score for the pursuit of salvation indicates that you will have to put in good efforts in pious or good deeds to derive mental peace and happiness.

The cycle of karma in our life will force us to go through all the experiences and goals in life as revealed by our ordained life script score.

Our life is never linear or black and white, it always has shades of grey contradictions and they will rear their head, no matter how hard we try to purge them. In this final section, we shall examine those contradictions as revealed by your chart.

The dialectics of life as symbolized in our chart -

There are 12 houses in our chart. There can be 6 pairs, where in each pair, we have clubbed 2 houses opposing each other in our chart. So these 6 pairs are as follow -

1st pair	1st house and 7th house
2nd pair	2nd house and 8th house
3rd pair	3rd house and 9th house
4th pair	4th house and 10th house
5th pair	5th house and 11th house
6th pair	6th house and 12th house.

In the dialectic view of life, in each pair, one house is the thesis and the other house is its antithesis.

There is a constant struggle between the thesis and antithesis and a synthesis is taking place, which is again generating its antithesis, and a new synthesis takes place. This is the saga of our life and this is truly how the cycles of karma get manifested in our life.

In our life, as in nature any Karma that we perform goes through 3 distinct processes. The 1st process is the seed or the reasons, the 2nd process is the trigger or transformation when seed transforms and takes a definite meaning or form, the 3rd process is the manifestation when the form matures and delivers the fruits and flowers. We can call this result state.

In our chart, each house signifies a particular process signifying the 4 goals in life. We have tabulated these 4 goals in life and have leveled each house in the chart and the process each house signifies in the following table -

House and Process associated with each house

Pursuits	Seed stage	Trigger stage	Result stage
Pursuits for 'Dharma' (Vocation)	9th house	1st house	5th house
Pursuits for 'Artha' (wealth)	6th house	10th house	2nd house
Pursuits for 'Kama' (sensual pleasure)	3rd house	7th house	11th house
Pursuits for 'Moksha' (salvation)	12th house	4th house	8th house

Now we can view the dialectics of life with respect to the AB score of each house in our chart as given in the house table.

House and Process associated with each house

Pair Number	Houses involved	Synthesis	AB scores (in your chart)
1st pair	1st	Vocation trigger	27
	7th	Desire trigger	18
2nd pair	2nd	Wealth result	35
	8th	Salvation result	27
3rd pair	3rd	Desire seed	37
	9th	Vocation seed	22
4th pair	4th	Salvation trigger	36
	10th	Wealth trigger	32
5th pair	5th	Vocation result	22
	11th	Desire result	38
6th pair	6th	Wealth seed	25
	12th	Salvation seed	18

If AB score is 28 or more, then that function/process will manifest smoothly and without any challenges. If AB score is less than 28 then that function will pose difficulties and challenges. Lower the score will be the difficulties and challenges.

We can rearrange the numbers in a slightly different way and see how you will progress in each of these 4 goals in life.

House and Process associated with each house

Pursuits	Seed	Trigger/span	Results
Pursuits for 'Dharma' (Vocation)	22	27	22
Pursuits for 'Artha' (wealth)	25	32	35

Pursuits for 'Kama' (sensual pleasure)	37	18	38
Pursuits for 'Moksha' (salvation)	18	36	27

Comments -

If AB scores is 28 or more, then the process signified by the specific house will proceed smoothly without much difficulties or challenges, because the planets and their interaction with the house will be supportive and harmonious. The greater the value, the harmonious interaction will be more supportive to you. These are your opportunity areas in life and you must utilize them to the best of your abilities.

If AB score is less than 28, then the process signified by the specific house will present many challenges, difficulties and obstacles in life, because the specific house is being exposed to too much negative energy from the planets influencing the house. The lesser the score is from 28, the greater the difficulties and challenges.

These are the areas, which you have to confront in your life, and you have to realize the nature of these negative energies.

You have to make conscious efforts to improve and to fight these negative energies so that they do not cloud and overwhelm your thoughts, your attitude, your action and your response pattern.

First of all you have to realize and accept that such a problem exists, only then you can begin to fight, neutralize and reduce the pain and suffering that these struggles can cause in life.

Astrology is not for people who would simply want to know about the happy things and close their eyes to the negative aspects in the chart, and accept it blindly as the fate or destiny and do nothing about it. You have to make conscious efforts to bring about a fundamental change in your personality, the way you think, the way you respond to events and people or the way you act to outwit the stars.

Yes you can change your destiny and you can outwit the stars also.

Fortunately, the ancient Vedic Sages have also advised short cut and astrological remedies, which will help you to conduct this struggle in less stressful manner, but your own conscious efforts will be the supreme deciding factor in your battle to outwit the stars.

We shall now explain the nature of this struggle of six pairs in little more details, which will give you a better insight and will guide you to identify the areas where you need to improve through your own conscious efforts. You should go through this explanation carefully and it may demand multiple reading to grasp its full significance in your life.

The Struggle of First pair -

This is the battle between Vocation trigger and Desire trigger.

The vocation trigger, which basically decides, how clear we are about our own core competence and skills and how strong is our intent or determination to apply it in our strategy and action.

If this score is low, then it means either we are not clear or focused about our core competence or even if we are clear, we hesitate and we do not have strong intent to pursue our mission in life. The Desire trigger means, that in order to fulfill our mission in life, we cannot do that in vacuum, we have to forge partnership with other people, with the world at large, and together we must pursue common goals or common ideas.

When Desire trigger is low, it will mean that either there are no clear desires, or very low level of desires or there are no commonalities of goals, or there are impractical desires.

Synthesis between Desire trigger and Dharma trigger will be achieved when there are commonalities of goal both at qualitative as well as quantitative level.

If both scores are higher, then this synthesis will produce a very high level of satisfaction, contentment, and harmony in life. If Dharma trigger score is higher than desire trigger score, it will signify, that some of the desires will be modified, curtailed and compromised to manifest the pursuit of riotousness more over pursuit of sensual pleasures.

If desire trigger score is higher than Dharma trigger, it will signify some of the sense of righteousness will be sacrificed at the altar of sensual pleasure.

If both are more or less at equal level, but high score, it will mean, a perfect harmony and balance and also high level of satisfaction and happiness.

High score for Dharma trigger over Desire trigger in married life may mean, one will be too dominating to impose one's goal over her spouse and will be totally insensitive to her spouse's goal and physical and emotional needs.

In the reverse case, the spouse will be too dominating and the person will meekly surrender her goal, the physical and emotional need to her spouse.

In the process, the marital life will lose all its passion and the person will also not be able to manifest or pursue her mission in life properly.

The Struggle of second pair -

This is the struggle where on one hand you are trying to build and accumulate wealth, whatever be the nature of your wealth, money, property, knowledge, health, prosperity of family all that is known as worldly creations and possessions and on the other hand, the stars are trying to limit or destroy your worldly possessions through disease, old age and death because all material things come apart, and all things must return to their component, because on the final day of reckoning, we cannot take with us any of our worldly possession.

If the wealth result score is 28 or higher, it means one will have the normal urge to accumulate more and more of worldly possession of our choice as one progresses through life.

If the salvation result score is 28 or higher, it means one will progressively get detached from worldly duties, responsibilities and worldly possession either from a conscious act on one's part or through unexpected karmic retributions triggered by planets in the chart. If the wealth score is less than 28, then such person will consciously neglect the duties and responsibilities to earn livelihood or to look after one's family. Many such people will actually avoid marriage so as not to take any responsibilities.

If the salvation score is less than 28, then such person will be too attached to one's possession and too much materialistic, and as such will be completely at a loss and devastated if confronted with any karmic punishments like accident, injuries, death and material losses in life.

If wealth score is higher than salvation score, the person will be more materialistic than spiritual. If salvation score is higher than wealth score, the person will be more ascetic and spiritual. If both are at the same level, then there is a balance and harmony.

In our normal life, a high score of 8th house salvation score over 2nd house or wealth result score is not desirable. It is desirable only for those, who have taken a conscious decision to live a life of Yogi or an ascetic.

The Struggle of third pair -

This is the battle, which decides where you will direct your efforts, initiative and courage either towards pursuit of pleasure and desire or towards pursuit of vocation and your mission in life.

If the score is higher than 28, it indicates that whatever you do, your level of efforts will be very high. Once, you have decided to pursue something, you will be steady and will not spare any efforts to achieve your goals.

If the vocation seed score is higher than 28, it indicates that your efforts and initiative will be totally guided by your sense of right and wrong. You will usually never pursue any goal, which will not be permitted by your sense of righteousness.

If the desire seed score is lower than 28, then there is definitely a problem with the level of efforts that you put to achieve any goal in life. You need to consciously improve your efforts and you will have to be more consistent with your efforts.

If the vocation seed score is lower than the 28, then you are definitely unlucky. Your background, your education, your parental support, your value system, all may have a role to play. You should make conscious efforts to seek guidance from superior people or books to improve your value system.

If the desire seed score is higher than vocation seed score, it could mean you are too ambitious, and your desires may be unrealistic or much beyond the scope for fulfillment. You have to make continuous efforts to reach anywhere near your goal.

If the vocation seed score is higher than the desire seed score, it could mean you are extraordinarily lucky. Destiny will always favor you and it can often happen that other people will make efforts and work very hard to fulfill your desires.

If both are equal, then it simply means that what you sow is what you shall reap in this life.

The Struggle of fourth pair -

The meaning of this struggle is that on one hand you have your worldly status, your social background and your professional status and on the other hand, is your need for peace, contentment, emotional and material security vis-à-vis your worldly status.

If the salvation trigger score is higher than 28, then you are content with your worldly status, and you may not make your extra efforts to improve your worldly status any further.

If the wealth trigger score is higher than 28, then it signifies that you will never rest at peace with your existing worldly status, you will continuously push yourself to attain higher and higher level of worldly status in this life.

If the salvation trigger score is less than 28, then you are never content, and you will never feel emotional and material security in life. The irony is that this feeling does not lead to greater efforts but it only increases unhappiness, insecurity, frustration and depression. If the wealth trigger score is less than 28, the person is simply lazy and too content. There will be no initiative or drive to improve one's worldly status in life. Such people never try their luck by trying out different things or different jobs or different places.

If the wealth trigger score is higher than salvation trigger, such people will be highly materialistic; will be full of energy and drive. They are always active. Profession and career are going to be the most important factor in life at the cost of domestic bliss and harmony. They will seek power and status throughout their life.

If the salvation trigger score is higher than wealth trigger, such people will be content and happy. Family life, domestic bliss and harmony will be the most important factor and source of happiness in life. Worldly status, power will be secondary source of happiness in life.

If the scores are equal, then such people have been able to achieve a balance and harmony in this struggle.

The Struggle of fifth pair -

The meaning of this struggle is on one hand one is trying to be constantly creative and trying to add volume to their efforts vis-à-vis how much results they are achieving or are being able to fulfill their worldly desires. Results are important but equally important is that it must be achieved through creative and innovative efforts.

If Vocation result score is higher than 28, then creativity, innovative action will be their second nature. They will have great passion and zeal in whatever they undertake. Such people are usually lucky in love and romance, and usually achieve a high level of skills or education in whatever field they choose. Their speculative instinct to do something out of ordinary is also high. Their sense of discrimination between right and wrong Dharma and Adharma will also be very high.

If the Desire result score is high, such people are born lucky. They usually fulfill most of their desires in life with least efforts. They are happy go lucky people and are usually very successful materially.

If the vocation result score is less than 28, such people will lack creativity and innovation in their efforts. They may achieve results, but may not get any pleasure or a sense of fulfillment in their vocation. Their career or profession will be very routine and a drag in their life.

Their sense of discrimination will be very low, and such people get into reckless gambling or get rich quick schemes and loose heavily in life. They usually have unfortunate experiences in love life. They are also unlucky so far as happiness from progeny is concerned.

If the Desire result score is less than 28, such people usually do not get proper rewards or compensation for their efforts. They have to work much harder than others to achieve success or to fulfill their desires in life. Failures in their mission will often frustrate them. They must make extra ordinary conscious efforts to achieve material success in life.

If Vocation result score is greater than desire result score, then they are happy and have self-fulfillment in their vocation or career. They also receive greater social recognition for their efforts.

If desire result score is higher than vocation result score, they may be materially highly successful but they do not get commensurate social recognition in life. Their career or vocation will not give them enough self-fulfillment.

If both are high and at the same level, then that is the best combination in a chart. Both rewards as well as self-fulfillment will be at the highest level for such people.

The struggle of sixth pair -

Among all the pairs of opposites, this is the trickiest and most challenging struggle between the pairs of opposites. On the one hand, wealth seed signifies the disease, obstacles, enmities and challenges as well as your capacity to overcome such obstacles in your pursuit for wealth in life. The 6th house connects the self with the material or the physical world. Whereas the 12th house the Salvation seed detaches the self from the physical world and all that is material or material possessions that we seek.

Hence this is the struggle between the process of creation of wealth and the process of destruction of that wealth. The Salvation seed score signifies expenditure and losses. It signifies detachment from our secure home and motherland to an overseas or foreign land. It signifies the sexual act where our seeds get detached from ourselves. It signifies, prison, solitary confinement, monastery, where we are banished from the living world.

This also signifies the seeds for final Salvation. However, a high score is desirable only for people who are seeking true salvation in life. If other conditions are favorable then this high salvation seed score can give great spiritual development in life.

If the 6th house score is higher than 28, then we will have the spirit of fighting and we shall be able to overcome all disease, disease, which means disturbance of ease, physical ease and mental ease. Disturbance caused by physical disease, enmity, debts, lack of wealth, win in competition, victory over enemies and all that.

If the 12th house score is higher than 28, then we will enjoy sexual pleasure, in Vedic astrology, it is euphemistically described as enjoying bed comforts. It will mean, we will spend all our money to enjoy pleasure or spend it for good purpose like charity and rightful deeds. But the bottom line is we shall be detached from our wealth and will not save or accumulate wealth.

If the 6th house score is lower than 28, then we shall be bogged down by all kinds of disease, which will disturb our physical and mental ease. Our enemies will be victorious, we shall suffer from lack of wealth, will not be able to clear our debts either caused by us or inherited by us. We shall not be able to raise any debts. Our subordinate will not listen to us. We will lose in litigation and our enemies will get better of us.

Finally we shall have no fighting spirit or desire to overcome the disease and obstacles that will come on our way in our pursuit of wealth unless we make extraordinary efforts to do so. The planets will play their part to create those obstacles and disease all the same. If the 12th house score is less than 28, then the 12th house impacts will be less in our life. To that extent, it is desirable that 12th house score should be less for all ordinary and normal life script.

However, in today's global environment, such people may not be very successful in their overseas or foreign connection.

A low 12th house score may not give great sexual satisfaction and can in fact create a sexually repressed personality, which in turn affects her level of peace, contentment and happiness. If 6th house score is greater than 12th house, and it is a high score does indicate material success though after a lot of struggle and battle.

If 12th house score is higher than 6th house, it indicates detachment and not much material success but a great potential for spiritual development and salvation. A high 12th house score also indicates that such people will not achieve success in their motherland and may settle overseas for a long period of their life.

If both scores are more or less at the same level and also high, then it indicates a very good balance and harmony. Such people will struggle and through their own efforts will achieve a level of material success in their life, and after that, in due course of time, will also get detached from the material/physical possession and wealth to seek true salvation in life.
